DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

THE DIGNITY OF THE IMPEACHMENT CASE.

From the Springfield Republican, (Rad.)

It is not altogether clear yet whether the Congress will impeach the President, or the President impeach the Congress; or both, indeed. According to present appearances, it will be just about nip-and-tuck between them. The brilliant array of counsel retained by the President are not likely to come before the Senate in any very apologetic, deprecatory, or borrow-leave-to-be attitude. All of them doubtless believe the President to be guiltless of any high crimes or misdemeanors in the constitutional sense of those terms. All of them are thoroughly versed in constitutional law and in political history. * * * There is no doubt that counsel on both sides will find enough to say. It must be borne in mind that the strict rules of legal trial do not apply in impeachment trials. New testimony can be brought in at any time. Special pleading is allowable. The offence charged is malfeasance in office, not technical crime. Hence a wide verge must be allowed to court, counsel and witnesses. It is a sort of loose and popular court, consisting of fifty or sixty judges. The prosecutors are the representatives of the majesty of the people. Counsel accordingly cannot be tied down to petty technicalities, but must have a free range over the whole field. Just think of it. Somebody will get impeached badly. There is little doubt about that.

Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Gazette.

IMPEACHMENT—THE FRIENDS OF THE PRESIDENT LESS SANGUINE—THE TALK IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The friends of President Johnson are less sanguine of his acquittal this evening than they have been. The impression is being made upon the minds of the Radicals that unless they convict, their party is hopelessly lost; and fears are entertained that this impression will insure the conviction of the President beyond peradventure. If the issue be the conviction of Andrew Johnson or the destruction of the Radical party, the Democrats feel sure that conviction will follow.—Such is the talk to-night in political circles. The article lately published in the Nation, New York, declaring that a verdict in favor of the President is the death warrant of the dominant party, has been placed in the hands of every Radical Senator and member of Congress, and is likely to have a controlling influence.

The acting Vice-President declared at the tea table, a few evenings since, that if he had the power to remove him, Andrew Johnson would not be in the White House a week longer, at the same time spicing the remark with a bit of profanity not to be repeated in this correspondence. The great motive power in the impeachment movement is believed to be General Ulysses S. Grant. Senator Wilson agrees to take his chances for the Vice Presidency, and the indications are now decidedly in favor of his being second on the Grant ticket. In the mean time it is rumored that Seward is playing his cards to hold over, and professes neutrality between the conflicting elements.

A NEW MILITARY ORDER.

General Canby has issued, under date of March 3d, a general order, from which we copy the following paragraph:

The monthly reports of crimes, arrests, and of discharge or transfers of prisoners, required by existing orders from civil officers within this Military District to the Provost Marshal General, will in future be rendered through the Post Commanders within whose jurisdiction such officers may be serving at the time. The duplicate reports required to be made to Post Commanders are hereby discontinued; and the reports required of Post Commanders will hereafter embrace only such cases as are not included in the reports of civil officers, and will be rendered at the time these reports are forwarded, with such remarks as are requisite to a full understanding of any cases needing explanation. Post Commanders will report at the same time the measures taken, with a view to correct any neglect on the part of civil officers, either in failure to notice a reported crime, or to arrest the criminal, or for unusual or unnecessary delay in making the reports required.

Post Commanders are charged with the prompt rendition of these reports, which will hereafter be forwarded by them direct to the Provost Marshal General at these headquarters. Blanks will be supplied to all civil officers through commanding officers of posts, who will make timely requisition for the same upon the Provost Marshal General.

The other sections of the order refer exclusively to matters of military discipline.

COMPLIMENT TO GENERAL HANCOCK.—The compliment paid to Major-General Hancock, last Saturday evening, at the Opera House, where the whole house rose en masse to cheer him at the close of the celebrated duet, "Amour Sacre de la Patrie," was a like honorable to him and creditable to our people. It demonstrated at once, not only the popularity gained by his upright and dignified course in administrating the affairs of this department, but a love for the man. The endorsement of a community so pointedly expressed is, in this republican country, ample recompense for the denunciatory growls of a score of tricky politicians or ambitious "men on horseback."—New Orleans Times, 3d.

Late trials in Tennessee develop transactions in cotton during the war that look rather damaging to some Federal officers of the highest rank, as well as their quarter masters.

It has been decided in England that a stamped fac-simile of a signature is as valid as a written one. Good for Congressmen of lazy habits.

The Alabama papers designate those citizens, other than colored men, who voted at the recent election, "persons assuming to be white men."

A truly loyal gentleman in Pittsburg, Pa., tried to cut out the tongue of a traitor who dared to defend the course of President Johnson.

The Cincinnati Enquirer calls upon the Ohio Legislature to instruct Wade and Sherman to oppose impeachment.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over. On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500; five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have proceeded their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TUITION MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all occupy in the College Chapel, and none are to do anything in regard to Millinery is to be demanded at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters eat them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR PATRONIZERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits of which are divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 40 per cent on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and never contested a claim.
7. Its rates of insurance are as cheap as those of any safe company doing a sale business.
8. IT WILL NOT CEASE AS VOLUNTARILY.
9. One half the premium will be loaned to the owner of the insured—which sum, in case of death, is never deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED in the MILITIA with NEGROES,—perhaps under negro officers? That is one of the issues.

COL. E. D. HALL.—Our gallant candidate for Lieutenant-Governor has made appointments to address the people of Jones and Lenoir at various places. He is doing his duty nobly, as we knew that he would.

DOWN WITH THE CONSTITUTION,—That is the watch-word of the white men of North Carolina.

"SOCKDOLAGERS."

Mr. Abbott, of Massachusetts, via New Hanover, and Col. Rodman, formerly of the Confederate Army, will have sufficient reason, for many years to come, for remembering Tuesday night last and Plato Durham.

The Suffrage Article of the mongrel Constitution was under consideration. The report, in another column, will show the general character of proceedings. French, the Yankee Sutler, who comes via Bladen, offered a prescriptive and mean oath. Abbott, though, doubtless, perfectly willing to support it, yet probably thought that policy dictated a little—just a little—milder course, and accordingly submitted the test-oath some time since suggested by him. We have not a copy of it by us, but we learn that it virtually excludes those who "sympathized with the instigators of the rebellion." Whereupon, Mr. Durham promptly told the imported Constitution-maker, that he (Mr. A.) himself could not take that oath, without perjury, for he was, at that very moment, "sympathising most actively with at least two prominent instigators of the rebellion,"—two men (Holden and Rodman) who were high up upon the Radical State ticket, who had been secessionists all their lives, and who had as much agency in bringing on the war as any men in the South! Abbott hadn't thought of that, and he wilted like a paper-collar in a pail of water.

Undeterred by this knock-down, Col. Roman imprudently came to the rescue of his new found ally. He suggested to Mr. Durham that the "rebellion" referred to was not that of 1861, but the "rebellion" of the present day, against the reconstruction measures of Congress. "Ah!" said Mr. D., turning upon him, "no doubt, Sir, you would like to put that construction upon the matter; for, at the very time that thousands of those, who now are barred by the acts of Congress, were pleading for the Union, you were a rampant Secessionist, clamoring for WAR TO THE KNIFE!" Mr Rodman reeled and shortly thereafter "kicked the bucket." The blow was damaging enough,—it was a settler,—but Mr. Durham might have also cited Col. Rodman's recollection to his later agency in the war, to the fact that he was a Judge of one of the Military Courts of the army, and that he was instrumental, as such, in having poor deluded creatures, (who were induced by such men as Holden, and others, at home, to believe that it was their duty to abandon their comrades,) SHOT for desertion!

In this connection, it is, perhaps, but just to say that Mr. Heaton deserves credit for the stand which he took against proscription.

NEGRO CONGRESSMEN.

It is not disputed that the Radical members of Congress are utterly opposed to the election of negro men in the South for Congress. We hear, on all sides, that the policy of the Radicals is to drive or buy off all the negroes who are inclined to run for Congress. In order to make the negroes quiet on this subject, they are told, that the feelings of the Northern whites will not brook negro Congressmen at present,—that for the negroes to persist in running for Congress, would defeat the aims of the Radical party, and, therefore, in order to their future good, they must not press their claims yet.

Horace Greeley, of the Tribune, justifies this course, on the part of the Radicals, taking the ground that, having been so recently freed or declared to be citizens of the United States, negroes are not eligible to seats in Congress, for the reason that the Constitution declares they shall have been citizens for seven years. This is but double distilled hypocrisy. The Constitution, when it is against Radicalism, is obsolete—a mere rope of sand; but when its verbiage can be employed to promote the ends of Radicalism, it is quoted with approbation. This restriction of the Constitution applies only to persons born in a foreign land, and cannot, without a perversion of its intent, be applied to citizens of the United States, who are native born. Nothing would prove more clearly the hollowness and hypocrisy of Radical professions to the negroes, than for a number of them to run for and be elected to Congress, and to be rejected or refused seats in that body. The Radical majority dare not reject them, it duly elected. We want to see the thing tested. We desire to see the Radical theory tried in this particular, and in those Districts, where the negro vote is largest, we should be glad to see colored men brought out.

In the first, second, third and fourth Districts in this State, the negro vote is sufficiently large to elect colored men to Congress. Sensible men among them, if of good character, would more worthily fill seats in Congress, than the white Radicals likely to be run by them, and who are expected to be elected in those Districts by negro votes. The Radicals have professed great interest for the blacks—have declared that they are entitled to equal political and civil rights with the whites. They admit their right to fill seats in the State Conventions to frame the organic law of the States, and in the State Legislatures; why then shall they be debarred from Congress?

Prominent colored men, therefore, in the South, have the chance presented to them, by Congress itself, under the Reconstruction Acts, to be elected to Congress. They ought to test the fidelity of their professed friends. At least, they have the chance of either going to Congress or to make one or two thousand dollars by coming out for Congress. Why not test it?

SUBLIME IMPUDENCE.—Certain negroes in Wilmington have had the effrontery to solicit subscriptions from Conservative gentlemen to defray the expenses of the X. P. A's contemplated speaking in that City, on the 23rd inst. Where are their scallaway friends?

Shall MARRIAGE BETWEEN NEGROES and WHITES—amalgamation,—be allowed? That is one of the issues.

POOR ALABAMA!

There is no end to the oppression and the ruin of the down-trodden South or to the perfidy of the Radical party. If anything were wanting to prove the recklessness and the hatred of the Radicals to the poor suffering whites of the South, the new bill for the admission of Alabama, proposed by the Reconstruction Committee, as given by our telegram on yesterday, supplies it.

The whole country knows, and the world knows, that, in strict accordance with the Reconstruction Acts of Congress, the people of Alabama defeated the shocking, outrageous Constitution drafted by her mongrel Convention. No one doubts it, and yet, for purely partizan purposes, Congress or the Radical majority has determined to force that State, not into the Union, for she is already in, but into Congress, in positive violation of law, at least of the Reconstruction Acts, and proposes to annex additional conditions, more humiliating and degrading, if possible, than anything yet required by that body.

We hope the people of the United States will ponder well those additional conditions—will narrowly criticise their extraordinary character, and will express in proper terms their utter condemnation of them:

"SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That said State of Alabama shall be recognized and be admitted to the Union, upon the following conditions, to-wit: That the right of suffrage of citizens of the United States shall never be denied or abridged in said State, on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude; and Congress shall have power to repeal any act of said State Legislature, in violation or in derogation of the provisions of this act."

This supplemental act most clearly violates the law, the Reconstruction Acts, without repealing them. Does Andrew Johnson deserve impeachment for violating law or rather for testing its constitutionality? Does not Congress deserve impeachment for violating law, also?

At the very time that Congress was perpetrating this infamous outrage upon Alabama, Pennsylvania was rejecting, by an overwhelming majority, in her State Legislature, a proposition to let the few negroes in that State vote!

GREAT MEETING IN HILLSBORO.

The meeting of the white men of Orange, at Hillsboro, on Tuesday, was, one of the largest public demonstrations ever held in that ancient and goodly town. The Court House was crowded to its utmost capacity, and a number of the ladies of the place graced the occasion with their presence.

Jones Watson, Esq., of Chapel Hill, was called upon to preside.

The Hon. Jno. Kerr, of Caswell, made, it is said, perhaps the finest effort of his life. To those who know Mr. Kerr's abilities as an eloquent and popular orator, this will seem high praise, but we are assured that it is deserved. He thrilled the large audience with his bursts of indignant denunciation of the miscreants who are seeking to degrade the white people, men, women and children—of North Carolina, beneath the heel of negro rule. His speech was received with great enthusiasm.

The Hon. James M. Leach, of Davidson, also addressed the meeting in his well known effective and trenchant style, bringing down the house with almost every period and at every point. It is said that his dissection of the Radical ticket, and especially of the old Secession portion of it, was most withering.

The Hon. William A. Graham also spoke, but briefly.

The whole affair was a grand success, and has had the effect of carrying up the already aroused spirit of the people of old Orange to the "boiling point." Another meeting was to have been held, on yesterday, for the nomination of candidates for the Legislature.

ENROLMENT OF VOTERS.

The plan of organization adopted by the State Conservative Convention contemplates the appointment of two or more active, competent persons, in each Captain's District, who shall take a full list of the names of all voters pledged to vote against the new Constitution and for the rule of the white man in North Carolina. Also, to take a list of all the white voters in each District, who are pledged to vote for the Constitution and for negro supremacy. This is a most important matter, and it is time that this was being done in every Captain's district. It is important that each white man, at least, in the State, had taken his position on one side or the other, and that the real position of every man was known.

The contest, in which we are engaged, is not an ordinary one. It is not such a partisan contest as we have had in former days, upon which intimate friends might differ and still retain each other's confidence and respect, but it is one which involves the future status of the white race in the South, as well as the tried principles of Constitutional liberty. The very existence of republican government in the United States is involved, and must be settled one way or the other, in the next twelve months. Every man therefore should show his hand.

GEN. SHERMAN.—The New York Citizen states that it has good reason to believe,—not absolute authority, however,—that Lt. Gen. Wm. T. Sherman will, if solicited, accept the Democratic nomination for President and again enter civil life. As a soldier, and a statesman, he is a head and shoulders above Grant. He is the only man, it strikes us, who can beat Grant easily, and although, on principle, we do not prefer military men for civil office, and do not affect Sherman, we are for any man who can beat Grant.

IT is gratifying to see the ladies turning out, in various parts of the State, to encourage their fathers, husbands and brothers, in their efforts to defeat the base and degrading designs of the Mongrel party.—They have an interest in the great issue, which it passes the power of words to express.

DOWN WITH THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION! That is the slogan.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

NIGHT SESSION.

TUESDAY, March 10, 1868.

Convention called to order at 7½ o'clock.

The report of the committee on Suffrage and Eligibility to Office, being the special order for this hour, was taken up and considered.

Section 1 was read, when

Mr. French, of Bladen, moved to amend by adding, after the word "election," in 6th. line, the words "except as hereinafter provided;" and, if that was adopted, he would propose an additional section, which he read.

Hood (negro) opposed, and Galloway (negro) favored it, saying that it was almost the universal sentiment of the colored people of New Hanover county, that the men already disfranchised should remain so, until they repented.

Mr. Pool, the Chairman of the Committee, in a long and elaborate argument, opposed the amendment.

Tourgee supported it.

Mr. Heaton opposed it. He said that, on mature deliberation, he had come to the conclusion that there should be a fair registration, and he read a substitute which he should offer when Mr. French offered his proposed section.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, spoke in opposition to both Mr. French's amendment and intended section.

Mr. Abbott did not like the proposed substitute of Mr. Heaton, as it amounted simply to general amnesty. Now he did not like to be considered illiberal, but he thought the interest of the State demanded that the men already barred should remain so until they manifested repentance, (repeal sition of Galloway, negro.)

Mayer (negro) concurred with Abbott.

Mr. Parker was utterly opposed to any proscriptive policy. He would vote for Mr. Heaton's proposition, when it came up.

Mr. Colgrove would do the same.

The question recurred upon Mr. French's amendment to the 1st section, and, a vote being taken, resulted yeas 53, nays 50.

The section, as amended, was then adopted.

Mr. French then offered the following as an additional section, to come in between the 1st and 2nd sections, viz:

(Provides for registration by Legislature. Person offering to register must swear, among other things, that he is not disfranchised by Reconstruction Acts.)

Mr. Heaton then offered the following substitute for the proposed section, viz:

"It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to provide, from time to time, for the registration of all electors, but no person shall be allowed to register, without first being required to take an oath or affirmation to support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution and laws of North Carolina, not inconsistent therewith.

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States and the Constitution and laws of North Carolina, not inconsistent therewith. So help me God."

Mr. Abbott offered the same oath which he did some time ago, as an amendment.

Mr. Durham said that all gentlemen, who supported test oaths, made use of the argument, that such a measure was necessary to protect "loyal men." The loyal men! And who are the loyal men in your estimation? Those men who are too true to the Constitution, which you pretend to regard, to support those unconstitutional acts of Congress, known as the reconstruction acts—acts that are notoriously illegal and so acknowledged by the leader of your party.—Of course, no body is "loyal," who will not accord a support to those acts! If loyalty consists in supporting those acts and worshipping at the shrines of such men as Thad. Stevens, Henry Wilson and others, then I am proud to be called disloyal. According to the oath proposed by Mr. Abbott, a man shall be required to swear that he entertains no sympathy with the enemies of the United States. Why, as to that part of it, I, as well as other Conservative gentlemen, can take it, but who are those enemies?—They are the men who openly violate the Constitution, by supporting and advocating the Reconstruction acts and other revolutionary and unconstitutional acts. You very radical gentlemen had better mind how you swallow that oath, for, in doing so, you will do nothing more nor less than perjure yourselves.

Mr. Rodman here interrupted Mr. D., saying that the rebellion alluded to in the oath was not the old rebellion, commenced in 1861, but the rebellion now attempted to be inaugurated by the Conservatives.

Mr. Durham replied: No doubt, sir, you would like to have that construction put on it, for while thousands of men, who are now banned, were crying out and battling for the Union, YOU, Sir, were a rampant Secessionist, clamorous for war to the knife and from the knife to the hilt!!!

I brand all these efforts to secure test-oaths as infamous, outrageous and tyrannical. You are afraid to let the people judge freely, and by your acts, lest, seeing the corruption and vileness that pervades the whole party, they should rise up and put their feet upon its neck. It is sheer cowardice that makes you anxious to manufacture test-oaths. You are afraid to have your iniquitous proceedings here fairly judged by the people.

The question recurred upon Mr. Abbott's substitute, and it was rejected by a vote of yeas 76, nays 26.

Mr. Heaton's substitute was then adopted, by a vote of yeas 74, nays 27.

Mr. French moved to reconsider the vote.

Mr. Sweet moved to lay the motion on the table.

[Here the House became involved in a scene of great confusion. Various points of order were raised, motions to adjourn and deafening calls for the question were heard on all sides, and, at last, a motion to adjourn was entertained, put to a vote and carried, amid great confusion.]

MORNING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, March 11, 1868.

Convention called to order at the usual hour.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lennon, of the Convention.

THE SPECIAL ORDER,

The Report of the Committee on Internal Improvements, was taken up.

Mr. Rich called up that part of the report that presents an ordinance to amend the charter of the Chatham R. R. Co., and which authorizes an issue of $1,200,000 of coupon bonds, bearing six per cent interest, payable at the end of thirty years from the date thereof,—the State to be secured by a deposit of coupon Bonds of the Company to the same amount, and bearing the same interest, and payable at the same time and place as those of the State, directed to be issued and paid over to the said Road.

Mr. Rich said he did not deem it necessary to say anything on the subject. He only requested that a statement, drawn up by Prof. Kerr, might be read.

The Secretary read the statement, when Mr. Tourgee arose and proceeded to show the advantages that would accrue to the State, if this ordinance was adopted.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, said that he was an internal improvement man, but he thought a man, who was at all prudent, when he intended to embark in an enlarged enterprise, would first find out that he had the means to carry it out, and held that what was prudent in an individual was prudent in a State. He was opposed to pledging the credit of the State, by so large an issue, until our affairs should assume a brighter aspect.

Mr. Heaton moved to insert, in the 26th. line, between the letter "a" and the word "mortgage," the word "first."

The Chairman, Mr. Rich, accepted the amendment. (This makes the ordinance read "a first mortgage," in every instance.)

The yeas and nays being called, the ordinance was adopted by a vote of yeas 80, nays 4.

Mr. Heaton, by consent, submitted a report from the Committee of Sixteen, concerning an ordinance relating to the Wilmington and Tarboro Railroad Company. Lies over.

Mr. Mann called up the ordinance to change the manner of paying the State's subscription to the capital stock of the Western Railroad Company. (The ordinance provides for the return to the Public Treasurer of one million dollars worth of Bonds of the Charlotte, Wilmington and Rutherford Railroad Company, which, have been paid to the said Western Railroad Company, by act of the Legislature, and authorizes an issue of one million dollars of the State Coupon Bonds, in lieu thereof.)

Mr. Tourgee moved to suspend the rules and put the ordinance on its final passage. Carried.

Mr. Sweet moved to amend Sec. 2, as follows:

"That no part of the one million of Bonds issued to the Western Railroad Company shall be delivered to said Company, until the President and Directors thereof shall execute and deliver to the Governor of the State a first mortgage on the entire Road and its property, conditioned to save the State harmless against the losses of both principal and interest of said loan."

Mr. Sweet's amendment was accepted by the introducer of the ordinance.

Mr. Abbott offered an amendment, reducing the issue of the State bonds from one million to a half a million. This amendment was also accepted.

Under the suspension of the rules, the ordinance, as amended, was put upon its final passage and adopted by a vote of yeas 68, nays 18.

The report of the Committee of Sixteen, in relation to an ordinance introduced by Mr. Watts, to aid the Williamston and Tarboro' R. R. Co., was, on motion of Mr. Watts, taken up and considered. [The ordinance is that whenever the President of the Railroad shall testify to the Governor of the State, that the said Road is graded, he shall direct the Public Treasurer to loan, in behalf of the State, to said Company, the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in coupon bonds, and the Company shall set aside the receipts of the Road, over and above its annual expenses, as a sinking fund to pay the said debt and interest; and it further provides that the President and Directors of the Road shall execute and deliver to the Governor of the State a first mortgage on the entire Road and its property, conditioned to save the State harmless against the loss of both principal and interest of said loan. The bonds to be issued shall bear an interest of six per centum, and the principal is payable at the end of 30 years from the date thereof, and the coupons for the interest are payable semi annually in such form as the Public Treasurer may direct.]

Mr. Watts advocated the passage of the ordinance for some time.

Mr. Jones objected to it.

Under the suspension of the rules, the ordinance was adopted by a vote of yeas 55, nays 14.

Mr. Rodman, from the Select Committee appointed to consider Mr. Cowles' case, submitted, in sum and substance, that the signature of the President might, if necessary, be set aside entirely, and, therefore, they did not think it at all necessary to further consider the matter, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

The Article on Suffrage was taken up.

The question recurred upon Mr. French's motion to reconsider the vote, by which Mr. Heaton's substitute for the 2d section was adopted.

Mr. Pool moved to lay the motion on the table.

The yeas and nays were called upon this motion and the vote stood, yeas 73, nays 12.

Section 3rd of the Report, as engrossed, was then read and adopted.

These three sections, comprising the article on Suffrage, were then put on their final passage; the yeas and nays were called and the article passed by a vote of yeas 80, nays 8.

Section 1st. of the article on Eligibility to Office was read and adopted.

Section 2: Mr. Pool moved to amend, in 5th. line, by inserting, after the word "crime," the words "since becoming citizens of the United States." Adopted.

Mr. Marshall moved to amend, by adding to the section the words "or disqualified by the fourteenth article," known as the Howard amendment.

Mr. French, of Chowan, moved to add as a substitute for Mr. Marshall's amendment, his minority report, as a 3d. class of exceptions, at the close of the sentence.

A discussion arose upon this amendment, too long to be reported, as it amounted merely to a reiteration of views expressed over and over again.

Mr. Pool called the previous question.—The call was sustained and the question recurred upon the substitute of Mr. French, of Chowan.

The yeas and and nays were called and resulted yeas 36, nays 58.

YEAS.—Messrs. Abbott, Ashley, Benbow, Bryan, Carter, Candler, Chilson, Dickey, Duckworth, Fisher, French of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Garland, Graham, of Montgomery, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) Ing, Jones, of Washington, Kinney, Logan, May, Marshal, Murphy, Parks, Petree, Rugland, Ray, Rhodes, Rose, Smith, Tucker, and Turner.

NAYS.—Messrs. Aydlett, Baker, Barnes, Blume, Bradley, Carey, (negro) Cherry, (negro,) Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Cowles, Daniel, Durham, Ellis, Ethridge, Forkner, George, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Harris, of Franklin, Hay, Heaton, Highsmith, (negro,) Hotfler, Holt, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Caldwell, King, of Lenoir, Laffin, Legg, Lennon, Long, McCubbins, Merritt, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Morton, Mullican, Nance, Nicholson, Patrick, Parker, Pierson, (negro,) Pool, Read, Rich, Rodman, Sanderlin, Stilley, Teague, Trogden, Welker, and Hall.

The yeas and nays were ordered on Mr. Marshall's amendment and it was lost.

The section, as amended, was then finally adopted.

The question recurred upon the final passage of the article. According to the rules, the yeas and nays were called and resulted in its adoption, (Conservatives all voting against it.)

By consent, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) offered a resolution, that no member shall draw any more money, until after the adjournment of the Convention.

Harris, (negro,) said the reason he offered this resolution was because he thought that if some measure of this kind was not adopted, there would not be a quorum on Monday.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, moved to lay it on the table. Carried.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

BUCKET COMPANY.—There will be a meeting of this Company, this evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Mayor's Office. Business of importance.

THE "HOLDEN RECORD," to be published by H. H. Helper, Esq., will make its appearance to-day. In order to make the necessary arrangements, the Register will be suspended for a day or two—for which Mr. Helper asks the indulgence of his patrons. The subscribers to the Daily will receive a copy of the "Record."

"DAILY ROCOH NORAH."—We have received the first number of a spirited and handsome Conservative Daily, bearing this title, and published at Goldsboro, by J. A. Bonitz, Esq. It gives promise of great usefulness and we extend to it the hand of hearty welcome. Price $6 per annum.

SAID a little boy, in this City, to his father, a day or two since: "Father, they tell me Gov. Vance can't run. If the reason is, that he is too poor to run, I've got that two dollars and a half, you know, I have been saving all along, and he shall have it!" This is a veritable incident, and illustrates, in a small way, what a hold Zeb. Vance has upon the affections of all North Carolina.

STILL THEY COME.—We are indebted to our friend, J. D. Hearne, Esq., of Albemarle, Stanly Co., for a club of thirty-eight subscribers to the Weekly Sentinel; and to our friend, A. Munroe, Esq., of Kinston, for a club of ten subscribers to the same. We extend to these gentlemen our hearty thanks, and commend their example to our friends generally.

CRAVEN.—The Conservatives of this County met in great force at Newbern, on Tuesday. Major Jno. Hughes was nominated for the Senate, Messrs. H. R. Bryan, Biddle and Miller for the Commons, Wm. Fleming, the present incumbent, for the Sheriffalty, W. G. Brinson for Superior Court Clerk and W. G. Bryan for the County Court Clerkship. Excellent speeches were made by Messrs. Haughton, Manly, Hughes, Justice, Bryan, H. T. Guion and W. J. Clarke. The candidates all accepted the nominations and a thorough canvass of the County will be made.

CHARLOTTE.—The Conservative Club of Charlotte met, pursuant to adjournment, on Saturday evening last. The Hon. J. H. Wilson was elected President; Thos. C. Allison, Saml. Taylor, Jno. A. Brown, Jonas Rudisell, Wm. J. Davidson and J. W. Duncan, Vice Presidents; Capt. S. F. DeWolfe, and R. P. Waring, Secretaries, and Charles W. Alexander, Treasurer. During the evening, Col. H. C. Jones, Capt. Waring, Gen. Johnston and T. J. Rooke, Esq., addressed the meeting. The speech of the latter, especially, is spoken of, by the Bulletin, in the most exalted terms.

EDGECOMBE.—There was a large and enthusiastic White Man's Rally in Tarboro', on Tuesday. It was addressed by Hons. Geo. Howard, Sion H. Rogers and Asa Biggs and Col. W. A. Jenkins. Edgecombe is "right side up."

STANLY.—A friend, writing us from this county, says: "We are going to vote down the new Constitution in this county by a large majority."

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

GREAT CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN FRANKLIN.

We are highly gratified to learn that the Conservative meeting, at Louisburg, on Tuesday, was one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held in the county. The Court House was literally crammed. Dr. E. A. Crudup was called to the chair and Capt. J. J. Davis explained the object of the meeting. During the absence of the Committee, Hon. Wm. Eaton, Jr., of Warren, being loudly called for, responded in a most felicitous and able speech, eliciting rounds of applause.

Moses A. Bledsoe, Esq., the nominee for the Senate, by the Conservatives of Wake, then being called on, followed in an eloquent and stirring speech, drawing from the vast crowd repeated evidences of approval. The meeting endorsed the Wake nomination, and named Dr. Crudup and Capt. J. J. Davis, as the nominees for Franklin, both of whom begged to be excused, when the meeting agreed to meet on the 20th. inst., to make the nominations.

At the close of Mr. Bledsoe's powerful speech, he informed the crowd that his competitor, Maj. Jones, of Wake, was present, and he asked them to call him out and give him an opportunity to address the meeting. Maj. Jones was loudly called for, but he failed to make his appearance. We learn that the Conservatives of Franklin are fully aroused and will go to work in earnest.

ROBESON.—The Conservatives of this county met in Lumberton, on the 6th.—Daniel McNeill was Chairman, and Dr. W. A. Dick and W. Foster French, Secretaries. District Committees and delegates to a District Congressional Convention were appointed, and sound, eloquent and instructive addresses were delivered by Thos. A. Norment, Esq., Col. N. A. McLean, W. S. Chaffin, and Giles Leitch, Esq. The following pungent resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1st. That we endorse the proceedings of the late Conservative Convention in Raleigh, not only as to its plan of organization, but also the great fundamental principles there declared.

Resolved, 2d. That the nomination of Zebulon B. Vance and Col. Hall is highly gratifying to us, (couldn't be better pleased) and we will go it for them with a perfect "rise," and preferring, as we do, Judges who spell January in the old fashioned way with a J, we will support the present incumbents of the office of Judge, together with those who have been nominated by the Conservative party, in preference to "Yankee Squatters" and North Carolina Radical babes in the law.

Resolved, 3d, That we prefer a "live Yankee" to a Southern traitor, and having no sort of use for either, we will not support for office a New England "carpet-sacker" or a Southern hybrid or speckled political hermaphrodite.

Resolved, 4th, That we will unite with our sister counties in restoring North Carolina to the proud position which she occupied when her own sons governed the affairs of State in their own way.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN TYRRELL.

At a meeting of the Conservatives of Tyrrell County, held in the Court House at Columbia, on the 2nd. inst., Charles McCleese was called to the chair and M. D. L. Newberry appointed Secretary.

The Chair explained the object of the meeting to be, to respond to the action of the Conservative Convention recently held in the City of Raleigh.

Whereupon, the Hon. W. N. H. Smith, M. L. Eure, Esq., and Gen. J. R. Stubbs, who were in attendance upon the Superior Court, upon invitation, addressed the meeting in their usual happy and able style.

In accordance with the resolutions passed at the Conservative Convention in Raleigh, the following persons were appointed County Canvassers:

Columbia District.—Eli Spruill, Thos. W. Knight and A. D. Litchfield.

Over River District.—W. V. Cooper, E. S. Davenport and E. Ransom.

Gum Neck District—Jesse Sikes, James McCleese and Wm. P. Brickhouse.

Alligator District—Ephraim Leigh, Jas. A. Spruill and Zach. Roughton.

East Lake District—Daniel Sanderlin, Thos. Sanderlin and Washington Crief.

Croatan District—Edward Mann, S. E. Mann and Clifford Cawn.

Stumpy Point—Thomas Wise, Marcus Midgett and John Midgett.

The following resolutions, offered by Captain Thos. J. Jarvis, were unanimously passed:

Resolved, That this meeting places itself on the side of Conservatism, and approves all the proceedings and acts of the great Conservative Convention recently held in Raleigh.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Raleigh Sentinel.

CHAS. McCLEESE, Chm'n.
M. D. L. NEWBERRY, Secretary.

TYRRELL.—See proceedings, in another column, of the Conservative meeting in this county. A friend, writing us from Columbia, says:

"Tyrrell is on the move. You may expect a good report from us in the election. Radicalism has no resting place here.—Smith made one of his ablest speeches.—Much enthusiasm prevails, and the Conservatives have gone earnestly to work."

OUR DISTRICT CONVENTION.—The following additional gentlemen have been appointed by the Chairman, John C. Palmer, Esq., delegates to the District Nominating Convention at Henderson, to fill the places of those who have signified their inability to attend, viz: R. C. Debnam, Seaton Gales, John McCullers, R. C. Badger, Judge Fowle, C. B. Root, Anderson Clements, R. B. Haywood, W. R. Miller, Wm. R. Crawford, Irving Pool, Jackson Moss, R. W. Haywood, Eldridge Smith and Hilliard Bell.

THE WILMINGTON Journal, received last evening, speaks in glowing and enthusiastic terms of the glorious Conservative meeting in Wilmington, on Tuesday night. It promises, in its next issue, to adjude, at length, to the eloquent and admirable speeches of Cols. Cowan and Person, Geo. V. Strong, Esq., and the President of the meeting, the Hon. Hugh Waddell.

JUST AS WE EXPECTED.—The Committee on Daddy Cowles' case have concluded to let the matter drop. If Daddy had only been a Conservative,—whew!

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES? That is one of the issues.

CANVASSERS.

The following additional Canvassers are announced by the Executive Committee:

Clay.—Col Henry Platt, Maj P C Hughes, Capt W B Tidwell, G G Bristol, John M Galloway.

Cherokee.—Col H H Davidson, Capt J W Cooper, Capt G N Phillips, Capt J M Slaughter, J B Fain.

Macon.—Dr J M Lyle, Capt J G Crawford, Col L Howard, Rev Allen Ammons, Jas H Bryson.

Jackson.—Col T D Bryson, Col J R Love, Capt J W Terrill, John H Alley, Joseph Keener.

Henderson.—T W Taylor, H T Farmer, Dr T A Allen, J D Hyman, S V Pickens.

Martin.—J Edwin Moore, George H Gregory, D. W. Bagley, A H Coffield, and Jos. D. Biggs.

GEN. HANCOCK ASKING GEN. GRANT TO BE RELIEVED.—Gen. Hancock telegraphs Gen. Grant asking to be relieved from command of the Fifth Military District. The request has been referred to the President, who has the matter under advisement. Gen. Hancock claims that corrupt officials which he had displaced have been restored to power by order of Gen. Grant. He therefore is of the opinion that he cannot make his department efficient unless he can be the judge of the situation in that regard. Grant was at first disposed to sustain Hancock, but yielded to the influence of a lot of New Orleans Radicals, who came on here with their side of the question. Gen. Grant has furnished the President with copies of the correspondence between the General-in-Chief and Gen. Hancock, relative to the removal of civil officers in New Orleans, and in which Hancock asks to be relieved from command of the Fifth District. General Hancock also telegraphs to the President, expressing the hope that no representations of parties in New Orleans will prevent the Executive from relieving him, as his usefulness as commander of the Fifth District has been impaired and his action paralyzed.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

GEN. STEADMAN'S VIEWS.—Gen. J. B. Steadman publishes a card in the New Orleans Crescent, in which he says: "As I understand there are some citizens who do believe that I entertain sympathy with Gen. Grant, I deem it due to myself to say that I am as strongly opposed to the political views and action of Gen. Grant as any man in Louisiana. The usurpations of Congress, sustained by Gen. Grant, are as abhorrent to me as they are to the great body of the conservative people of America, and I most earnestly hope that both he and Congress may be defeated in their attempt to trample upon the constitution and usurp the government."

THE RADICAL PLOT.—If this Radical plot now succeeds, there will be no Presidential election in November. The forms of an election will be gone through—and gone through with an unusual parade of a strict conformity to the minutest requirements of the law. But the cunning machinations of the usurping Government will, by that time, have provided all the various agencies through which that ostensible election will be controlled, and the Radical candidate will be declared elected. By fair means or foul, by violence or fraud, the revolutionists who usurp power will retain it for its own sake and for their protection.—Balt. Gazette.

The National Intelligencer thinks that "Macaulay is responsible for the whole of the tomfoolery in the Capitol at Washington, about the impeachment. Members have been reading his account of the trial of Warren Hastings, and imagining that they can figure like Burke, Sheridan, and the rest of the glorious group, in that celebrated case." The Alexandria Gazette wishes that Macaulay were alive now to write an account of President Johnson's trial as a contrast to that of Hastings. How the "glow-worms of the hour" would "pale their ineffectual fire."

From a recent communication to the House of Representatives of the Attorney General, it appears that Mr. Wm. M. Evarts has already received from the government as one of its counsel in the prosecution of Ex-President Davis the sum of $5,450. As Mr. E. has done nothing so far but make two motions to continue the case, it must be admitted that he has earned his fee very easily, and that Uncle Sam is a liberal client.

A cadaverous looking individual called the other day at a certain house in the lower portion of this county, and asked for a bucket of water. A negro brought a bucketful, and our cadaverous friend, "so called," drank it all; whereupon the negro remarked that he must be thirsty. "Yes," said the stranger, "this is the first water I've had since I was killed at Chickamauga."

Julius Cæsar! but didn't the negro run! He swears that the thirsty man was a Kuklux.—Winchester (Tenn.) Journal.

THE MCARDLE CASE.—The McArdle case comes up in the Supreme Court to-morrow for final argument. Prominent conservative gentlemen believe that when the decision is rendered there will be but one justice on the bench who will dissent from the opinion that the reconstruction acts are unconstitutional. A general belief to this effect has produced no little consternation among the Radical leaders.—N. Y. World, 9th.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 11, P. M.

SENATE.—A memorial was read from the citizens of Colorado, remonstrating against the State movement.

The bill, taking final judgement against internal revenue collectors to the Supreme Court, on appeal, without regard to the sum, passed. A conference on the bill, carrying the proceeds of captured and abandoned property into the Treasury, was demanded.

The Funding bill was resumed.

Executive session and adjourned.

HOUSE.—Grant reported seventy thousand eight hundred and twelve votes in favor of, and one thousand and nine against, the Alabama Constitution

Extension of the Freedmen's Bureau was discussed. Laid over.

The Alabama admission bill was resumed and spiritedly opposed by the Democrats. No Republicans spoke in opposition. Vote to be taken to-morrow.

Gen. Meade asks additional appropriations to enforce the Reconstruction acts

Logan, in defending his veracity regarding the bogus distribution of Bonds, said the of Treasury Department, that it was a rotten institution from head to foot. Adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 11, P. M

J. Ross Browne has been confirmed as Minister to China and Charles K. Tuckerman as Minister to Greece.

Efforts are making to secure Montana's admission. She claims 65,000 inhabitants.

No signs of a veto of the bill allowing a majority to ratify. To-morrow is the last day.

The Philadelphia State Radical Convention endorses Grant and Curtin. Among the resolutions is the following:

"Resolved, That we earnestly call upon the Senate of the United States, sitting as a Court of impeachment, to proceed without fear, favor or affection, and that the people of Pennsylvania will stand by and maintain a just judgment."

Another thanks Stanton

Nothing further from New Hampshire. The majority is estimated at 250.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, March 11, P. M.

The interest in the Constitutional Convention has been transferred to the Republican State Convention, which met last night to nominate State officers. Delegates to both Conventions in great measure identical, large majority being negroes.

The nominating Convention sat with closed doors, excluding reporters. It has been rumored that, after a stormy session, Gen. R. K. Scott, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, was nominated for Governor, and Samuel Boozer for Lieutenant-Governor. The nomination is considered equivalent to an election.

THE ALABAMA ELECTION.

MONTGOMERY, March 11, P. M.

The registered vote of Alabama is one hundred and seventy-one thousand. It is definitely known that not over seventy-one thousand were cast, and not all of them for the Constitution.

Not two thousand whites voted.

GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, March 11, P. M.

The Convention has ordered five thousand copies of the Constitution and fifteen hundred of the Journals to be printed.

Congress was requested to pass such laws as will remove the political disabilities from all the citizens of Georgia. Yeas 102, nays 26.

A motion to adopt the Constitution, as a whole, was carried. Yeas 112, nays 14.

At 5½ o'clock, after a day of great excitement and confusion, the Convention adjourned, subject to the call of the President.

SAML. DOUGLAS WYATT,

DAILY SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, MARCH 12, 1868.

THE NEWARK STEAM MAN—HIS ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK—HOW HE LOOKS AND WHAT HE IS GOING TO DO.

The inventor and exhibitor of the Newark Steam Man, (Mr. Zadoc Dederick,) has improved the occasion of the Barnum fire excitement, by hiring rooms in the opposite house, on Broadway, for the purpose of exhibiting the eighth wonder of the world. As a speculative enterprise the idea must have been a success, for at 10 o'clock this morning a large number of persons had congregated at the door, clamorously seeking admission. Amongst those who sought admission was one of our reporters, who thus describes his interview with this last specimen of the genus homo:

Mr. Steam Man is a person of commanding presence, standing seven feet nine inches in his stocking vamps, weighs five hundred pounds, measures two hundred inches round the waist, and decidedly bucolic in general appearance. At this early hour in the morning he was rather en dishabille, and minus his pants. This circumstance, though detracting rather from his comeliness, was yet more than counterbalanced by the great facilities it gave for the study of human anatomy—and was eagerly availed of for that purpose. The legs are made of iron cranks, screws, springs, ad infinitum, not quite as attractive in exterior as those we see in the weekly pictorials, but evidently of greater durability and strength.—The motion of the legs is almost fac simile to that of the human extremities, and the manner in which they are set against striking calls to mind the philosophic apostrophe of the human donkey to his namesake, "How fearfully and wonderfully we are made."

The abdominal region is occupied by a good sized furnace, which was in full blast. The steam man's boiler is delicately concealed from the profanity of the public gaze, but is presumed to be somewhere above the furnace. This complex piece of machinery once got out of order, but was happily restored after a careful investigation of the cause and the application of the appropriate remedy. The steam whistle is fixed in his mouth, the guage at the back of the head, and the safety valve in an appropriate position. He wears a large stove pipe hat—stove pipe literally, for it is through the cranium the funnel passes. His hands are gloved, a good mustache ornaments his face, and in outward garb he is rather good looking than otherwise.

The steam man proper is but a figure-head, as it were, of a handsome phæton, capable of accommodating four persons, together with a tank to contain half a day's supply of water, and a bunk for a day's coal. The entire [illegible] machinery is at the rear of the steam man, and within easy grasp of the driver, seated on the front seat, who, at any time [illegible] increase or diminish the speed, turn, stop, curve, etc. Twenty pounds of steam, will set the man in motion, and twenty cents' worth of coal will work him for a day—so the inventor avers.

It was the original intention of Mr. Dederick to have exhibited the steam man to-day in full running motion, but this he says would not be permitted by the insurance company. He says that he can easily accomplish a mile in two minutes on a level course, and offers to test this on Long Island Course as soon as the weather gets fine.—The engine is four horse power, and the man takes thirty inches in each stride.—Perhaps the most extraordinary attribute of the animal is the facility of stepping over all obstructions not higher than a foot. (Of course all these assertions are the inventor's, and not the result of the reporter's investigations.) It or he may be detached from a phæton and yoked to a sleigh or any kind of wagon. Mr. Dederick is ready to unconditional offers of nine months parturition—steam men at a cost of $300 apiece. He will also shortly produce a steam horse adapted to ploughing, and the heavier kinds of draught and burden.

Whether the steam man prove of any practical good or not, he is unquestionably a great curiosity.—N. Y. Express, 5th inst.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to [illegible], registration, &c., and a proper [illegible] of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether here after in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such a change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

Canvassers for the State at Large.

The following gentlemen have been appointed, by the State Conservative Executive Committee, Canvassers for the State at large. It is to be hoped that they will at once make appointments to address the people. NEW ARRANGEMENT

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special [illegible] of the agricultural, [illegible] and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,	$8 00
" " six months,	4 00
" " three months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,	4 00
" " six months,	2 00
" " three months,	1 00
Weekly " for one year,	2 00
" " six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people.—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

W. E. PELL,
Raleigh, Dec. 28th., 1868. Proprietor
